

K-LOVE is a station that my entire family listens to along with many of our friends and our teenagers' friends. It would be terrible to have K-LOVE displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming. Because there is so few good media options, it would be in the public's best interest to not allow K-LOVE to be displaced.